

JERRY HEINE

Jerry Heine has been working as an artist throughout his career, both in graphic arts and in fine arts and as an instructor. He studied art at the University of Alberta, and graphic art at NAIT and at the Washington School of Art. He has been an instructor with the Faculty of Extension since 1989 and has had over 35 solo art exhibitions, both nationally and internationally. He has signature status with several art groups, including the North West Watercolor Society of U.S.A. Jerry has also curated art exhibitions, taught community art workshops, engaged in art critiques, and adjudicated and selected art for a variety of art clubs and schools across Alberta.
